Santa Monica City Charter Article XXII-Information for Contributors states that Councilmembers may not accept contributions from anyone who has received a valuable benefit as a result of the Councilmember's affirmative vote. Beneficiaries are defined to include both persons who have received benefits, and persons who are 10% owners, or are partners, directors, officers, or trustees, of corporations or other entities that have received benefits. Valuable benefits are defined as: A variance or special use permit operating as an exception to the zoning code and worth more than $25,000; or a contract for services or goods worth more than $25,000 in any twelve-month period; or a real estate contract worth more than $25,000 in any twelve-month period; or a franchise with gross revenue over $50,000 in any twelve-month period; or a tax abatement worth more than $5,000 in any twelve-month period; or cash in excess of $10,000 in any twelve-month period.

I affirm that I have not received a benefit as described by Article XXII, nor am I a 10% owner, or a partner, director, officer, or trustee, of a corporation or other entity that received such a benefit.
